SIR,

I have the honor to state that the rooms allotted for my office are not sufficient and that additional accommodation is absolutely necessary. For instance, the Cutcherry Auditors and my staff, who constantly work on audit work, have no room of their own, but have constantly to move from room to room owing to scarcity of accommodation. Whenever they have to go to office to draw out the records, they have to shift for the records in those rooms that are vacant, owing to the arrangements being changed from time to time. The continuance of this state of things is undesirable. As I find it difficult to find room for them by myself, and as all the rooms of the office establishment are also full, I request that you will be so good as to obtain the orders of Government to give me a room on the top floor by enclosing some portion of the hall.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

My dear Mr. Balasundaram Iyer,

In reply to my requisition for more accommodation for my Office on third floor, the Government have said that no room is available there. As we are in absolute and urgent need for more room, I write to ask to kindly let me know before I can make some definite proposals to Government, if the Press room which is in contiguity to the rooms occupied by the P.W.D. Branch of my Office on the downfloor, can be placed at my disposal. I hope you will find it possible to come to our relief.

Yours sincerely,
